

I am opposed to increasing the limit on the ownership of the number of television and radio stations. Local ownership is important for a local voice, local news, and emergencies. The lack of coverage of this issue by media owned by conglomerates has already proven that they do not serve the needs of the public.